Miss Edna Sands Dunham,
NEW YORK,
Soprano

One of the very best voices we have ever heard in these recitals was that of Miss Dunham in the eighth recital. She sang a grand aria by Case and the sacred song of Williams, "Come Unto Me," in a manner that excited almost a sensation. Not only did she prove again that the American voice, as Marchesi has frequently asserted, is naturally the best we hear, but also an American teacher, as we were told, has understood how to place it so admirably that there is nothing to correct or criticize. Miss Dunham not only convinced us of her vocal powers, but of her ability to interpret grandly such an aria as that of the American composer Case. Nor did Mr. Williams' exquisitely beautiful song stand one whit behind, for many were moved even to tears by Miss Dunham's impressive singing of this selection.—"Guide to Dresden," Germany.

An engagement announced Tuesday evening at a dinner given by Mrs. J. E. Taylor, of Woodland, near Danville, Va., of interest to society in Richmond, was that of Miss Mabel Robinson and James T. Catlin, both of Danville. The dinner was given at the Burton Hotel, and the table was arranged with primrose. The announcement of the engagement was made in telegrams presented to each guest. The wedding will take place in April.

Miss Robinson is a daughter of Dr. W. L. Robinson, and has visited friends in Richmond a number of times. She is one of the most popular girls in Southside Virginia, and her wedding will be a brilliant event of the coming spring.

Among those present at the announcement dinner were Mrs. William

Minor, of Richmond; Misses Blanche Patton, Eliza Hamlin, Grace Jones, Elizabeth Noel, Virginia Dancy, Lina Allen, Ethel Graham, Wila Strango, Madge Vase, Nellie Vase, Bland Schoolfield, Mary Wooding, Bessie Carter, Mabel Robinson, Hattie Bouldin and Marguerite Jordan.

Brilliant House Tuesday.

A brilliant house greeted Sarah Bernhardt at both performances at the Academy of Music Tuesday. The boxes were filled with fashionable folk, and the orchestra was one of the notable society assemblages of the winter. Some of those noted in boxes were: Mrs. Egbert Leigh, Jr., Miss Eda Atkinson, Miss Annie Gray, Miss Dorothy Christian, Palmer Leigh, Thomas Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Carol H. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. I. Newton Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore D. Hotchkiss, Miss Ellen Witt, Mrs. George L. Christian, Miss Mary Stone, Miss Jane Wingfield, Miss Belle Perkins, Wynham Meredith, Miss Marion Meredith. In the orchestra were Mr. and Mrs. James Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. McKell Lathrop, Miss Jennie Elliott, Miss Emily Royal, Miss Avis Grant, Mrs. Greenville Gaines, Miss Sarah Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Miss Fanny Scott, Miss Emma Gray White, Percy Montague, Charles Shields, Lewis Larna, Mr. and Mrs. William Northrop, Miss Elsie Roselle Valentine, Miss Mary Carmichael, Mrs. C. Hemphill, Miss Mary Cooke Branch, Mrs. Snead, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Vanderhoof, Miss Ella Buck, Richard Osterlin, Miss Elizabeth Cocke and others.

Card Party at Hermitage.

The Hermitage Club has postponed the card party that was to have been given at the clubhouse Tuesday, February 21, to Monday, February 27. About twenty couples will be present at this affair, and supper will be served at the small tables after the game.

Lecture Yesterday Afternoon.

Dr. Seumas MacManus' lecture before the members of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon was a perfectly charming address, from beginning to end. The author read selections from his own works, and concluded his talk with an old folk tale retold by himself in one of his books. Dr. MacManus lived all of his life in Ireland, where he was born, and has absorbed all the lore of the land.

The humor in his sketches is simply delightful, and the subtle charm of the speaker's genuine brogue gave a very unique touch to all that he said. His poems are all simple ballads, fraught with the melody and sweetness that only the Irish folk know how to weave into song and story, and the author's own delightful personality made the stories he read and related very pleasing to his audience.

Miss Montague Honored.

Miss Annie Rose Walker, of 291 West Franklin Street, has sent out invitations for a reception to be given Tuesday evening, February 21, at half after 8 o'clock, in honor of Miss Gay Montague, daughter of former Governor and Mrs. A. J. Montague.

Another function of next week will be a small dance given by Mrs. Philip Edwards Johnson and Miss Mary Hoadley Scarborough on Thursday evening, February 23, at 9 o'clock. The dance will be given in Mrs. Johnson's home, 2023 Monument Avenue, and will be in compliment to Miss Brooke, of Norfolk. Attraction Danville Card Parties.

Two very attractive card parties were given last week in Danville in honor of Mrs. William Yarbrough Minor, of Richmond. Mrs. Louis T. Puryear entertained for Mrs. Minor at euchre. Scarlet flowers were used to decorate the parlors, and the score cards were red hearts. Pink primroses were used to bank the mantels in the hall, and pink flowers were also used in the dining-room.

Thursday afternoon Miss Lucy Puryear was hostess at cards in honor of Mrs. Minor. Bridge whist was played, and crimson flowers prevailed in the decorations of the rooms on this occasion.

For Miss Lyman.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell, of 1291 West Franklin Street, has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given in honor of Miss Emily Cunningham Lyman, a debutante of this winter.

Dall-Friedlin.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Christian Friedlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Friedlin, of Portsmouth, Va., and Floyd Vann Dall, of Snow Hill, N. C., will be celebrated very quietly this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 206 North Hutton Street.

Miss Christina Friedlin will attend her sister as maid of honor and will wear a gown of pale blue crepe de chine, trimmed in pearls, and will carry a bouquet of pink carnations. The bride, who will enter with her sister, will wear an exquisite gown of white messaline, trimmed in real lace, with diamond ornaments. Her long tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white roses. D. E. Harrison, of Snow Hill, N. C., will be the groom's best man.

Immediately after the reception following the ceremony, which will be witnessed by only a few relatives and friends, Mr. Dall and his bride will leave for an extended trip to New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Guests from a distance include Mrs. H. L. Walton, Miss Mirlan Walton, of Washington, D. C.; Thomas L. Creekmore, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Ella Lee Carter, of Winston, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell, of Suffolk.

Reception Yesterday Afternoon.

Mrs. Austin H. Burr, of 2064 Monument Avenue, was hostess at a very handsome reception yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Peck, of Wilmington, N. C., and Miss Edna Dunham, of New York, niece of Mrs. Oliver J. Sands, of this city.

Receiving with Mrs. Burr, besides the guests of honor, were Mrs. Malvern Patterson and Mrs. O. J. Sands. The house decorations were in spring flowers, and the table was especially attractive, with its centerpiece of lilacs of the valley, and violets, while the candles were shaded in white and silver.

About 200 guests were included in the invitations.

Miss Peck has stayed in Richmond on several previous occasions and has her visit here at a great deal during the winter.

Quiet Home Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Kate Harris Wren and Francis Byrd Winston took place very quietly last evening at 8 o'clock at 215 East Grace Street, the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ida W. Emerson.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Laird, of the Presbyterian Church. The bride entered with her uncle, Richard H. Wren.

Out-of-town guests for the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mastin, of Farmville, Va.; Mrs. Katherine Winston, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Winston, Jr., of Minneapolis, Minn.; Charles Pillsbury, of Lynchburg.

To Lecture at Woman's Club.

George A. Plimpton, treasurer of the executive board of Columbia University, New York, noted biographer and successful business man, will arrive in Richmond Saturday, and will be at the Jefferson Hotel for the week end.

He will lecture at Randolph-Macon College en route, spend Sunday in Richmond, and talk to the students of Richmond College Monday morning. On Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, he will deliver an address at the home of the Woman's Club, who are privileged each to invite two guests.

To Meet at Headquarters.

Miss May Lee Rowe was hostess at cards last Monday evening at her home, 125 West Clay Street. Three tables were engaged, and the top score was made by Miss A. L. Parker, W. H. Halley made the next highest score. At the conclusion of the game supper was served at small tables.

Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

The ladies of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church will give a reception to their pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Stevens, in the lecture room of the church, this evening from 8 to 10:30 o'clock. The members of the church and congregation are invited.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McCormick, of Berryville, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rosalie Taylor McCormick, to Harry Smith, of Washington. The wedding is to take place in June, and it will be one of the most notable functions of the kind in Clarke county society this summer.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Lucy Stone is the house guest of Miss Jane Wingfield in Richmond for this week.

Mrs. G. T. Garnett and Miss Ellen Douglas Garnett, who have been spending several days in Washington, returned to their home in Glinter Park yesterday.

E. W. Brown has returned to his home in Norfolk, after visiting friends in this city.

Colonel W. Gordon McCabe spent the past week-end as the guest of his son, W. Gordon McCabe, Jr., in Petersburg.

Miss Franklin Stearnes, who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, has returned to Fredericksburg.

Miss Elsie Phillips and Miss Flora Snead have returned to the city, after a visit to Mrs. E. A. Snead at her home in Clifton Forge.

Miss Dorothy Giffin, of Baltimore, will arrive in Richmond on Friday to be the guest of Mrs. Belne Blair.

Little Nelson Polley, who has been ill at his home, 114 South First Street, is gradually improving.

Mrs. Robert G. Thornton, of 1819 Monument Avenue, and Mrs. T. P. Adams, of 1837 Monument Avenue, are registered at the Waldorf in New York.

PASSED CENTURY MARK.

Henry Parmlater Dies, Lacking but 15 Days of Reaching Age of 108 Years.

Charlotte, N. C., February 15.—Henry Parmlater, veteran of the Mexican civil war, and the State's oldest citizen, lacking but fifteen days of having attained the age of 108 years, died at his home here today of grip. His wife died in 1905, at the age of 101. Among his descendants are several prominent grand children. He was hale and hearty up to a few days of his death, and retained every sense acutely.

Meets in Winchester.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., February 15.—The Shenandoah Valley Medical Association met here today. The following papers were read: "Appendicitis," by Dr. Peple, of Richmond; "Corneal Ulcer," by Dr. Hunter McGuire, of Winchester; "Salvarsan—A New Drug," by Dr. Cox, of Winchester. Dr. Carson G. Mason, captain in the regular army, was absent on account of sickness. Dr. J. E. Lincoln, of Rockingham, presided.

Lilly—Caudle.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wadesboro, N. C., February 15.—The home of Mrs. Lilly Caudle was the scene last night of a very pretty home wedding when Miss Inez Caudle, the daughter of Mrs. Caudle, was united in marriage to Harry Lilly, of Albemarle. The reception hall and parlors were tastefully decorated in white and green, and lighted with white candles. The vows were taken in the presence of Rev. T. W. Chambliss, of the First Baptist Church, who used the ring ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for an extended Southern trip.

Mason—Warthen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Luray, Va., February 15.—Captain Carson G. Mason, captain in the regular army, was absent on account of sickness. Dr. J. E. Lincoln, of Rockingham, presided.

News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
109 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., February 15.

Some four or five hundred people visited and inspected the new Birdville Tuberculosis Sanatorium yesterday, and all were pleased with the institution and grounds. The building has been made of brick and is fitted in first-class style, and with every possible convenience and comfort. It has ten or twelve large, airy, sunny rooms, made as bright and attractive as possible, and having comfortable accommodations for twenty or more patients.

The sanatorium was opened yesterday afternoon with simple exercises. The Rev. W. C. Taylor, D. D., of the First Baptist Church, and C. W. E. Scott, D. D., of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, conducting the devotional features. Dr. Doucett, vice-president, secretary of the State Anti-Tuberculosis League, delivered an address. State Health Commissioner Dr. E. G. Williams and W. B. Doucett were present during the day, but could not remain to the opening exercises. To-day patients are being received into the sanatorium, and as many as ten or twelve are expected within a day or two.

The Petersburg League, organized on a modest scale, has now a paying membership of over 500. Its officers are: President, H. S. Schuch, Vice-President, Rev. W. C. Taylor and Mr. W. R. McKenney, Secretary, Mrs. G. C. Wright, Treasurer, William E. Armistead. The League is a non-sectarian, and its board of directors and standing committees, Miss Jessie Gemmill is superintendent, and Miss E. M. Humphrey, assistant.

Negro Check Flasher.

A negro named William Boykin stood over in Waynesboro yesterday a while, forged the name of a prominent citizen to a bank check, successfully passed it, and got away before the forgery was discovered. The check was for $25, and was passed for purchase for a small amount. It is said that the negro stopped a white girl in the street, asked her the name of the owner of a fine house, and then got her to write the name of the owner on the check.

Brief News of Interest.

Tobacco sales reached 200,000 pounds yesterday and equally as much to-day. The firm of J. B. Early, of Campbell county, who has been visiting her son, Dr. L. S. Early, and her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Powell, was called home by a telegram announcing the serious illness of her husband, Dr. L. S. Early. The two splendid new public school buildings just erected by the city on Washington Street at a cost of about $50,000, will not be opened for pupils until the fall. They are yet to be furnished.

Applications to the judges of the Hustings Court for a reduction of the assessed amount on real estate in this city will be heard next week. It is said that many property-holders will apply for reduction. The Commonwealth's attorney will be present to represent the State in each case.

Pretty Marriage in Prince George.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon, in Gregory Baptist Church, at Prince George, Miss Annie Johnson Boisaucourt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Boisaucourt, was married to Thomas Alexander Meant, Jr., a prominent young citizen of the county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. H. Hays, D. D., of this city, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers and candles. The bride entered with, and was given away by, her father. She was attired in a handsome gown of soft white silk, crystal trimmings, her tulle veil caught with lilacs of the valley, and her bouquet was of white roses. Miss Christine Jordan, of Norfolk, was maid of honor. She wore a rich gown of French organdie, satin trimmings, and carried pink carnations. Mrs. Anna Brown, of Petersburg, was best woman. She was a cousin of the bride, and was attired in honor. She was exquisitely attired in pale blue messaline, with pink and gold embroidery, and carried pink roses. Henry Meant, of City Point,

YOUNG WOMAN ENDS LIFE.

Swallows Ounce Each of Carbolic Acid and Laudanum.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., February 15.—Miss Kate Taylor, the eighteen-year-old daughter of C. L. Taylor, of Maco, Botetourt county, committed suicide yesterday at noon in her home by swallowing an ounce of carbolic acid and an ounce of laudanum. The young woman was at home alone, her parents having gone to Fincastle. A little nephew returned from school and found Miss Taylor lying on the floor. He called to her, but could get no response. Neighbors were summoned and found that the young woman was dead. No cause is assigned which might have led her to commit the act. She attempted to kill herself by taking four or five pills several months ago. It is thought that her mind was unbalanced.

OPPOSE FAKE REMEDIES.

Retail Druggists of the Valley in Session in Staunton.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Staunton, Va., February 15.—The Virginia District Association of Retail Druggists, composed of members of drug firms of the Valley and adjoining sections, met here today, with B. F. Hughes, vice-president, in attendance, presiding. Members are in attendance from Winchester, Woodstock, Luray, Harrisonburg, Waynesboro, Clifton Forge, Buena Vista, Covington, Charlottesville and a number of other towns.

The body has gone on record as opposed to the sale of all nostrums and fake remedies, and as supporting the pure foods and drugs acts. It proposes to wage an active campaign against such remedies.
